Colonel Harrick was particularly interested in the NSA part of this request, which he said he had discussed with the General Counsel of DOD. [] LIAISON Called Paul Daly, FBI Congressional Liaison, to tell him that we would be testifying before the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence tomorrow on the [] case and our people would like very much to have a Bureau representative present at this session. I said I had discussed this with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, who had agreed. Daly said he would have to clear this through the Department of Justice channels but he was reasonably confident there would be no problem and unless he calls me back, we could expect an FBI representative to be present.
